Germany escape to victory

Thomas Muller comes off the bench to score match-winner

FPJ NEWS SERVICE / Hamburg

Hansi Flick made it four wins from four in charge of Germany as substitute Thomas Muller grabbed the winner against resilient Romania 2-1, in the 2022 FIFA World Cup qualifying group at the Volksparkstadion, Sylvesterallee here on Friday. Ianis Hagi's fine individual strike put the visitors ahead and they defended gallantly until Serge Gnabry fired Germany level early in the second period.

Home pressure finally told when Leon Goretzka flicked on Joshua Kimmich's corner for the unmarked Müller to score in the 81st minute and make it six wins out of seven for the Mannschaft in Group J.

Norway stayed ahead of Turkey in Group G as they came back to draw 1-1 in Istanbul and remain closest to section leaders Netherlands.

Kerem Aktürkoğlu's early goal gave Stefan Kuntz the perfect start in his first game as the home side's new head coach but Kristian Thorstvedt's leveller before the break means Norway are two points behind the Dutch – and, perhaps more crucially, two ahead of Turkey.

The battle for second behind runaway Group E leaders Belgium remains tight after a thrilling draw in Prague. Aaron Ramsey put Wales ahead on the break but the hosts equalised inside 90 seconds through Jakub Pešek. Wales goalkeeper Danny Ward's error from a backpass ended in a bizarre own goal but Daniel James steered in superbly to leave both sides on eight points.

Davy Klaassen scored for the third time in four internationals as the Netherlands earned an important victory away to Latvia.

Russia and Croatia took giant steps towards finishing in the top two in Group H after wins against Slovakia and Cyprus. The leading pair are six points clear of third-placed Slovenia, for whom Josip Ilicic scored twice in a handsome success in Malta.

Ranked 100 in the world, Aliaksandra Sasnovich brought an end to Emma Raducanu's 10-match winning streak, with a 6-2, 6-4, in the second round of the BNP Paribas Open.

Sasnovich will face 2015 champion Simona Halep for a spot in the Round of 16 on Sunday.

Coming into the second-round duel, Raducanu was riding a 10-match winning streak from her historic title run at the US Open, where she reeled off 20 consecutive sets through qualifying and the main draw to become the first British woman to win a major since Virginia Wade in 1977.

In contrast, Sasnovich, who reached a career-high No.30 in 2018, had just one Top 50 victory in a completed match this season.

Yet despite her sub-par 2021 season, the Belarusian has a proven track record of being a seed-slaying danger in the early rounds of big events. The 27-year-old had already notched 15 top 20 wins in her career, including victories

India face Nepal

PTI / Male

A beleaguered Indian football team faces Nepal in a must-win match in the SAFF Championship here on Sunday.

Seven-time winners India are yet to log full points from a game in this edition of the tournament, having drawn both their matches against Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.

Both the remaining matches are must-win ones for India if they are to make the final. "Nothing much has changed," head coach Igor Stimac said in the official pre-match press conference.

"We are here, and we are still alive in the championship. We are still here to win the tournament," he added.

Interestingly, the two teams had played two back-to-back international friendlies in Kathmandu in the first week of September where India had won the second match 2-1, after having drawn the first.

Nepal are leading the points table at the moment with six points having won both their matches against Maldives and Sri Lanka.
